Volume XXXLV

Nineteen Sixty Two

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES HIGH SCHOOL
Denver, Colorado

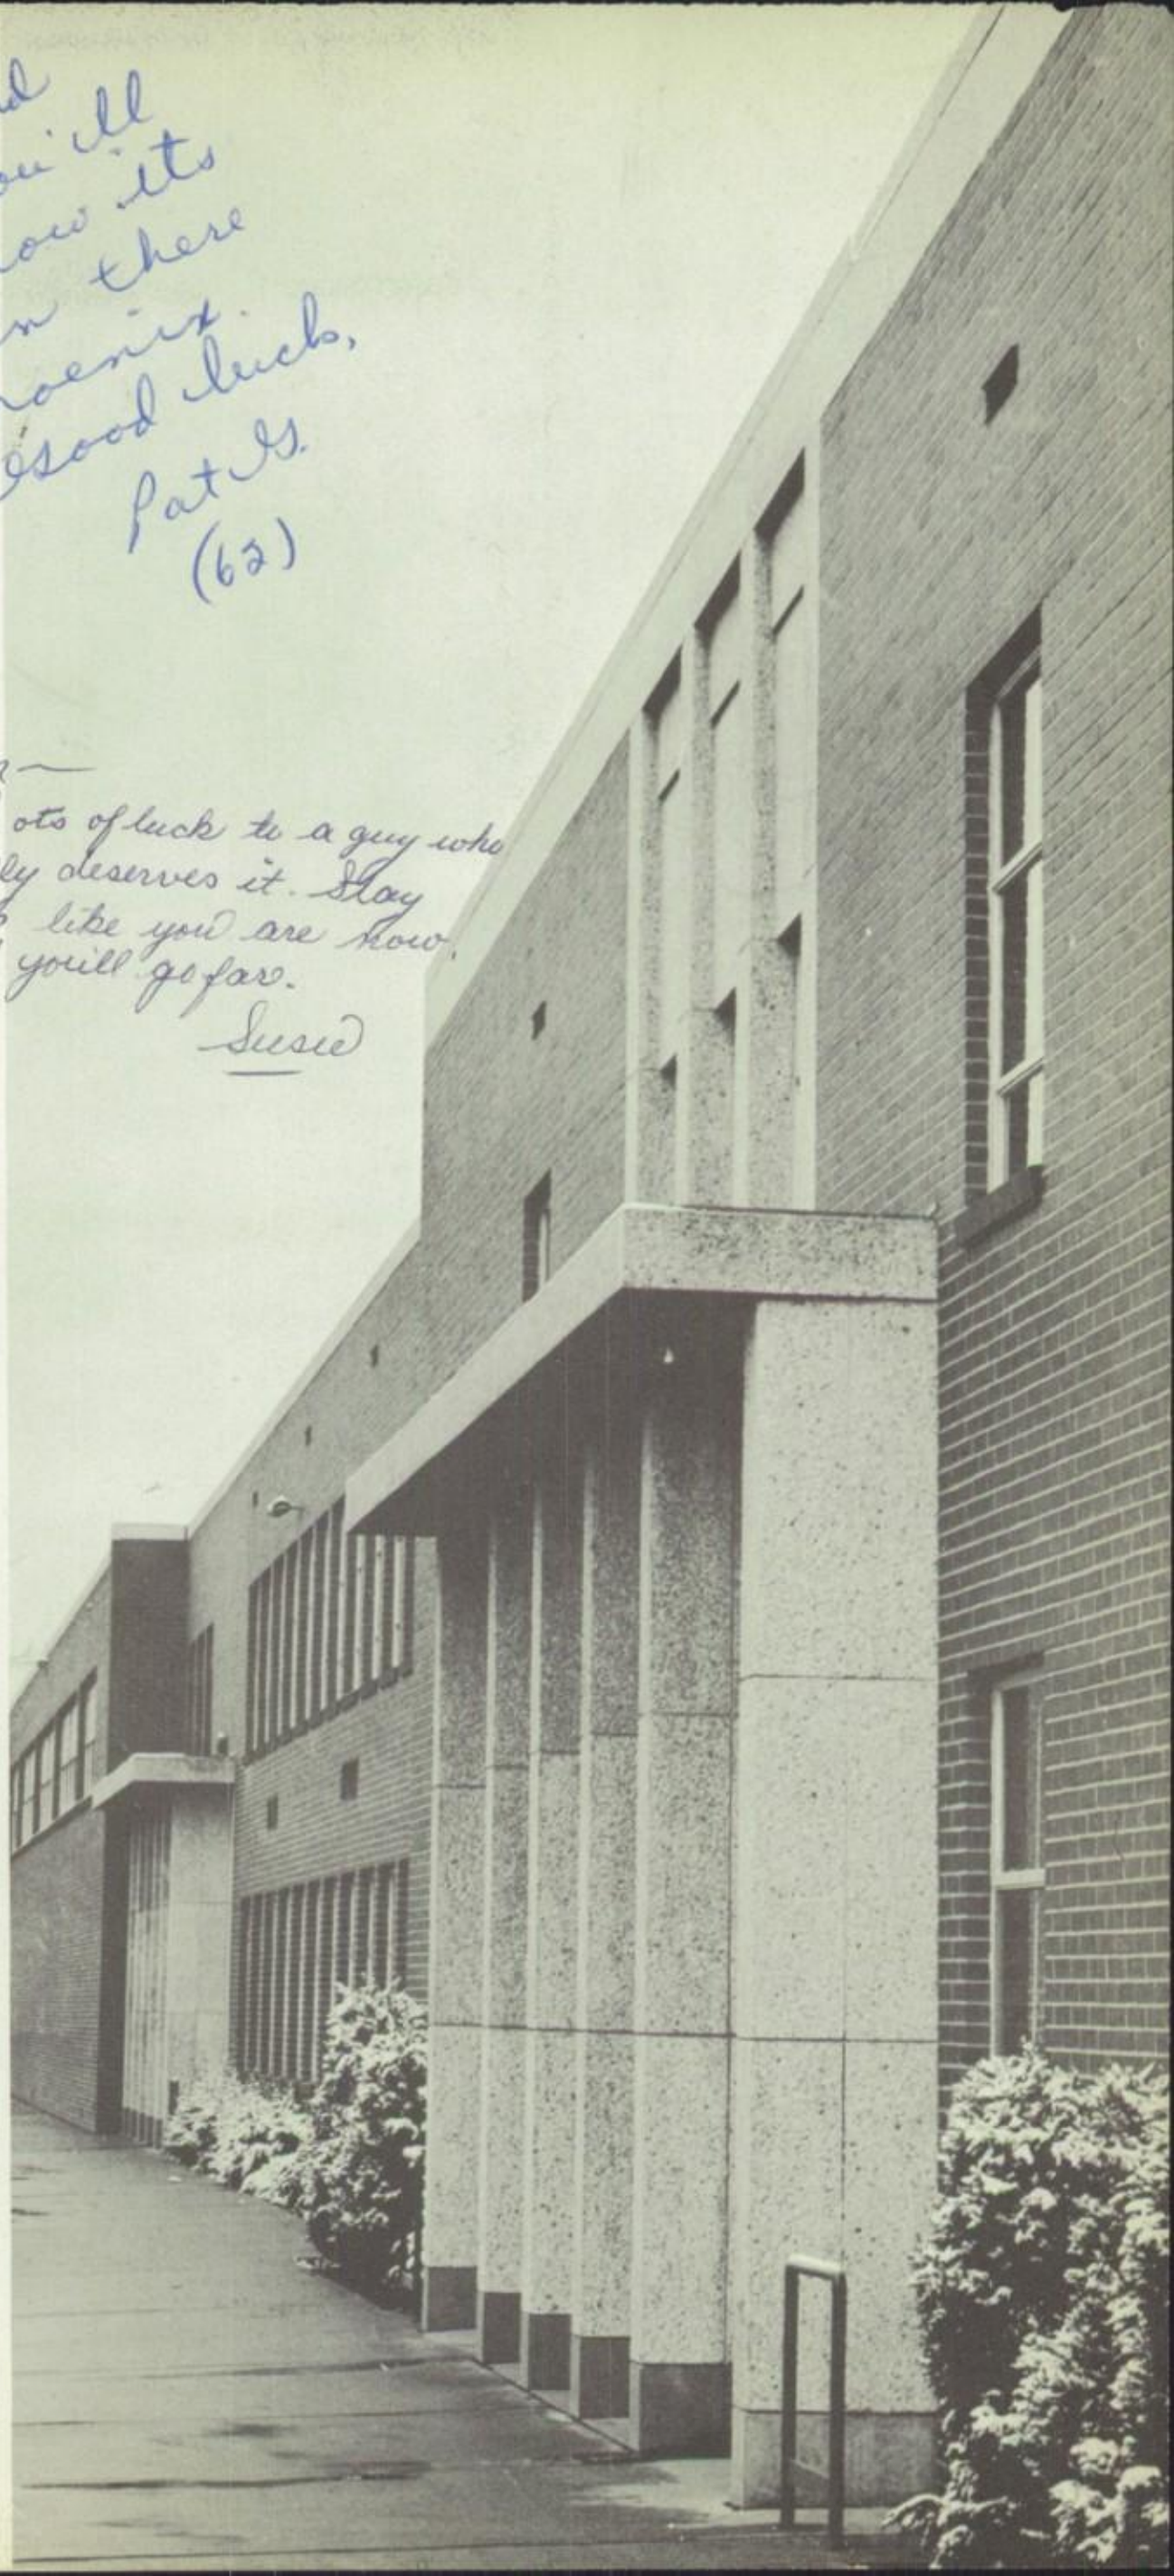

Tom,
 you're a real talented guy and I'm sure you'll show 'em how it's done in Phoenix
 Good luck,
 Pat B.

Through pictures and words the 1962
 FRANSALIAN records life — spiritual, intellectual, physical, and social — at St.
 Francis de Sales High School.

Tom —
 Lots of luck to a guy who really deserves it. Stay sharp like you are now,
 and you'll go far.

Dedication

Sister Jean Fontbonne, St. Francis de Sales principal, has guided many Fransalians, both past and present, through their formative high school years. Her assignment has not been an easy one for it requires that she be prepared to meet its demands at all times. Consequently, Sister has had few moments in which to pursue her own interests. Instead she has made the interests of the school and its students her primary concern. Though she teaches no specific class, Sister, in a sense, teaches everyone through her contacts with students. Love of Christ and her fellow man are exemplified by her reactions to every situation. Through her manner of governing this school, in co-operation with Monsignor Gregory Smith, pastor, Sister has helped to keep alive the spirit that is so vitally Fransalian. With a deep sense of gratefulness and a prayerful wish for the future, we dedicate this year's Fransalian to our principal and friend, Sister Jean Fontbonne.

Tom,

FACULTY

Our priests, our sisters, our lay teachers . . . all working together . . . all dedicated to the fulfillment of one goal: to form Christ in us . . . to make us worthy citizens not only for this world but primarily for the Kingdom of Heaven. For this goal they give themselves unstintingly . . . their talents, their patience, their understanding, their good humor, their Christlike charity. In the classroom, at our meetings, at our sports events . . . they are there to lend their support, to show their interest in us, their students. Whatever our blunders . . . whatever our foibles . . . they bear them valiantly as they expend their energies to lead us to accept the challenges of life, to meet our responsibilities toward our fellow men and toward our God.

Fransalians all . . . young men and women living out the adventure of learning how to formulate ideas, how to be articulate in matters that really count, how to pray, work, and play. Here at St. Francis de Sales High School we receive that kind of education that aims to develop the whole man—his spiritual, intellectual, and physical powers. To this end our curricular and extra-curricular activities are geared. To this end the philosophy of Catholic education is dedicated.

Fransalians join with the priest at the altar in offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass to God. Regularly these students are given the opportunity to participate in specially-scheduled dialogue Masses.

After directing the mixed chorus in the annual and beautifully religious Christmas Cantata, Mrs. Joe Noakes Lasham, choral director, receives a lovely corsage from one of its members, Bob Amundsen.

Spiritual Life

Since the primary purpose of Catholic education is to prepare young men and women for the kingdom of Heaven, every opportunity is given them to make that goal possible. Through personal and group guidance programs, through annual spiritual retreats, and through injecting a very strong religious viewpoint in its curriculum St. Francis de Sales High School endeavors to make firm the spiritual life of each of its students.

Peace and serenity, so essential for seriously thoughtful reflections, are the cherished possession of this senior boy during his closed retreat.

Thoughtful consideration is given to a question posed by Sister Austin, American Problems instructor.

Intellectual

Because education is an intellectual as well as a spiritual process, the curriculum at St. Francis de Sales High School includes not only the study and appreciation of religion but also of the language arts, foreign languages, physical sciences, social sciences, guidance, the fine arts, and the practical arts. In these courses teachers strive to develop in their students the art of correct thinking and the all-important ability to formulate ideas and right attitudes.

Events from American History come to life for these juniors as Mr. Joseph Bishoff, social studies teacher, discusses the implications of World War I.

Appreciation of the various types of music and a quality of dependability are developed in the music department by Mr. Lloyd Bowen, instructor.

Physical

Mindful that Catholic education has for its purpose the development of the whole person, St. Francis de Sales High School carries out a carefully planned physical education program. In addition to regular physical education classes for its students, the school aids in the development of intramural sports and participation in All-Paroke sports competition in the areas of football, basketball, baseball, and track. Through such programs students learn how to develop not only good sportsmanship but also physically fit bodies.

"Now strategically speaking, I'd say our next play should be this," says John Burton while Bob Amundsen contemplates an adequate defense against his plan. In another game of shuffleboard, Lloyd Malsam anxiously awaits the outcome of his skills as Dennis Archuleta watches.

Social

While responsibility for providing social activities for students remains primarily the obligation of parents, St. Francis de Sales High School does recognize the need for encouraging wholesome recreation and profitable use of leisure time. Extra-curricular activities frequently serve as a means for such social development.

Donning SF cheerleaders' regalia, these five fabulous flat-footers, from the left (background), "Donna" Batliner, "Melody" Apodaca, "Jenny" Kerin, (foreground), "Stephanie" Krizman, and "Laurie" Kelly, display outstanding inexperience but cheerful willingness to learn as they bring down the house at the big rally that preceded the State Basketball Tournament.

"Wider than a mile, I'm crossing in style some day," sing these senior boys at one of their song fests.

"Eek — a mouse!" screeches Patsy Gisler.

"Erin Go Bragh!" The arrival of the Lord Mayor of Dublin in Denver provided Mr. Lloyd Bowen and his St. Francis de Sales High School band another opportunity to display their talents. And it provided Father Raymond Jones (far left) who drove band members to the airport with an equally good opportunity to see the Lord Mayor.

in a world crying for forceful leaders there must be environments where such leaders can be shaped. Our organizations are testing grounds for future leaders. Wielding a gavel at a student council meeting . . . or urging students to act at a CSMC rally . . . or assuming the responsibilities that must fall to the lot of any of our school's leaders . . . all this tends to form in us leadership qualities that are indispensable in an age that so desperately awaits men and women of integrity who will make their voices heard and their actions influential . . . voices and actions that reflect Christian social principles.

ST. FRANCIS
DENVER

The graces and benefits of the sodality seem to be radiated in the smiles of Bernadine Monahan, secretary; Kathy Birkby, prefect; Mary Anne Sheridan, treasurer; and Valeria Kautsky, vice-prefect.

Sodality

The Sodality, a way of life, strives to lead its members to Christian perfection and the defense of the Church. It comprises two divisions: the boy sodalists under the direction of Father Joseph Lievens and the girl sodalists under the direction of Sister Marie Loyola and Sister Marian Francis. A small organization with big accomplishments, its activities include weekly apostolic work at homes for the aged and orphanages and special charitable projects.

CSMC officers, Mel Apodaca, president; Barb Romero, vice-president; Miki Tice, secretary; and Cheryl Armbruster, treasurer; beam with joy after another successful mission project.

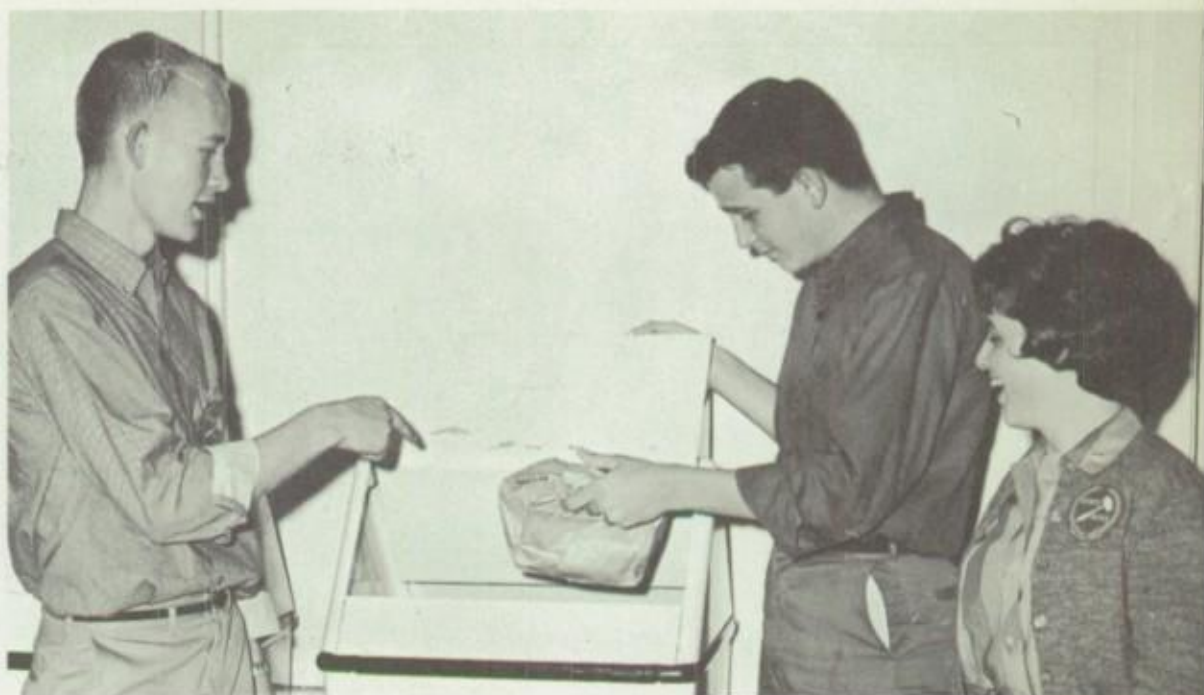

C.S.M.C.

"Prayer, Sacrifice, and Study" are the ideals which mission-minded Fransalians attain under the guidance of Sister Margaret Denise, CSMC moderator. Prayers are recited each day in the homerooms for the Propagation of the Faith, and Wednesday is designated as Mission Sacrifice Day. Monthly meetings supervised by homeroom representatives afford each student the opportunity of acquainting himself with the work carried on by dedicated religious in the missionary field.

The Gremlin spirit of giving is shown by the large amount of delicacies donated to the Federal Correctional Institute. Hungrily looking at the variety of goods are, clockwise: Mel Apodaca, Dennis Archuleta, Father O'Malley, chaplain at the Institute, Bill Dowdle, John Graham and Sister Margaret Denise, CSMC moderator.

"Me big chief Student Council president," says Don Batliner, Student Council prexy. Happy to be members of the tribe are Mel Apodaca, treasurer; Pat Wenzinger, vice-president; Jonna Lou Blair, secretary.

"Look, Cassoll, stick it in the basket," orders Senior Student Council member, Dick Quinlan. Miki Tice seems to catch the humor of the situation.

Student Council

The SF Student Council members, under the direction of their moderator, Sister Jean Fontbonne, hold bi-monthly meetings at which they discuss and decide upon important school matters. They are in charge of such things as publication of the Buzz Book and the rule book, presiding over the cafeteria during lunch hour, enforcing school rules, and acting as a contact between the student body and the faculty. Throughout the year the members try various means to raise money to pay for the dinner given at the end of the year for all incoming and outgoing members.

First-year speech students read over invitations to upcoming speech tournaments. They are, from the left: Marty Burg, Cecilia Nowack, Betty Langley, Don Swanger, Bernadine Monahan, Ken Pelzel and Karen Wray.

N. F. L.

To produce better speakers, better Fransalians, and better citizens, is the purpose of the National Forensic League. NFL members, coached by Mrs. Lenabell Sloan Martin, bring glory to St. Francis and to themselves through their participation at speech meets. These activities provide opportunities for meeting students from different chapters, establishing friendships, and learning from rich experiences how to become articulate speakers.

Responsible for a large part of the enthusiasm in the speech department are NFL officers, from the left, Cheri Thompson, secretary; Jerry Droll, president; John Ryan, treasurer; and Anne Karr, vice-president.

J. C. L.

Cultivation of interest and enlightenment in the age-old cultures of both Greece and Rome is the aim of the Junior Classical League. The S. F. league, with Sister Marie Dolores as moderator, perpetuates the refinements of these civilizations through such activities as Latin Week, the publication of the Latin newspaper, Hodie, and participation in the regional conventions and national tests. JCL assemblies are held four times a year with monthly meetings in individual classrooms.

"Is this the face that launched a thousand ships?" wonder JCL Quid Est Labor Meus panelists, Pat Petry, Mike McGinnis and Pat Wenzinger, as Alan Rutkowski shakes hands with Mike Hennessy, the mystery guest. All fourth-year Latin students, these seniors entertained at the fall JCL meeting.

"These bring back memories of my jack-and-ball days", exclaims Bob Amundsen, Red Cross president, as he, Sister David Marie, moderator; and Mary Noe, vice-president, examine toys for the Santa Claus Shop.

Red Cross

The most important project of our Red Cross Chapter is the Service Program. Each summer Fransalians offer many long hours of their vacation to the Volunteer Service. These students serve either in hospitals, nurseries or clinics. From their duties, Fransalians learn appreciation for the needs of their fellow man. Under the direction of their moderator, Sister David Marie, young Red Cross workers have given unselfishly of their time and talents.

Athletic Clubs

The school's first officers in the newly-organized Girls' Athletic Association are, from top to bottom: Loretta O'Connell, president; Mary Amundsen, vice-president; Jeanine Foster, secretary; and Mary Lou McKinzie, treasurer.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association has helped further the physical education of SF girls. In addition to developing through its activities ready muscles and reflexes, the GAA also helps to engender and nourish good sportsmanship through its organized intramural sports program.

Standing before the trophies which their club has won throughout the years are F Club officers, from the left: Larry Kelly, vice-president; Dick Quinlan, president; and Steve Krizman, secretary-treasurer.

Caught looking into school on a snowy afternoon are Pep Club officers, from top to bottom: Jonna Lou Blair, president; Roseanne Clark, secretary; Kathy Reinmuh, vice-president; and Jane Smith, treasurer.

Pep Club

Acting as an aid to acquiring even greater fervor in school spirit, the Pep Club initiates and spreads its enthusiasm at all the league games during the year. Fostering a knowledge of and interest in major sports is another component factor of this girls' organization. In addition to attending the games, the girls of the Pep Club are invited to attend the Pep Club dance, an important normal dance usually held in January. This year the SF pep club, under the direction of Miss Mary Ellen Logan, merited the All-Paroke trophy for the best pep club in the state tournament.

F Club

The F Club is the boys' athletic organization at St. Francis. A boy is eligible for membership when he earns a letter in any of the four major sports—football, basketball, baseball, and track. The club sponsors a dance each year in conjunction with a banquet which honors all athletes who have merited awards throughout the year. With their moderator, Father Raymond Jones, the club holds bi-monthly meetings.

Office Staff

The duties of the office staff are many and varied. They lighten Sister Jean Fontbonne's duties by answering calls and transmitting messages to students and teachers. Office hours for these girls occur during their study periods.

Vickie Eifert, Rosemary Guadagnoli, and Judy Brown carry on with various duties in the office.

A mixture of hard work and good humor is evident in the faces of these office-staff members, from the left, Bernadine Monahan, Mary Amundsen, and Sherri Devlin.

A CTIVITIES

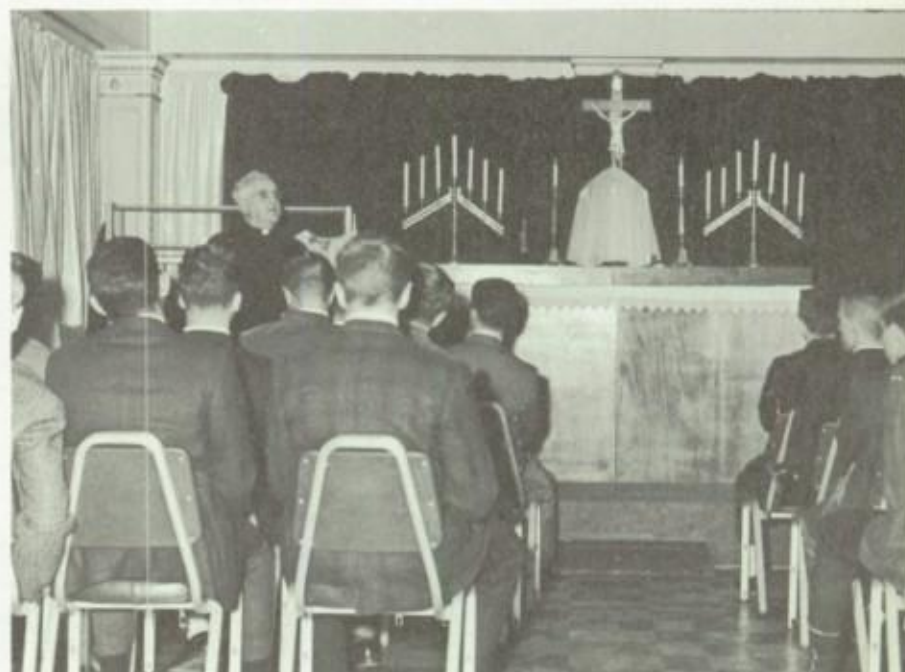

A sane variety of activities . . . set up to direct us to use our leisure wisely . . . to teach us the joy of wholesome recreation. Whether we are together dancing . . . or shouting at a pep rally . . . or working on the school publications . . . every activity is meant to lead us to understand the importance of making even our leisure time meaningful experiences . . . experiences that should result in developing healthy attitudes of Christian charity and tolerance in our dealings with one another.

Retreat

Monsignor Joseph Schieder's stimulating lectures inspire senior girls to serious thought. Four conferences marked each day's retreat program.

St. Francis menhood follow closely Father Joe's word during a conference at their closed retreat. The boys are shown in the North Lake Room which each year is converted into a private chapel for this occasion.

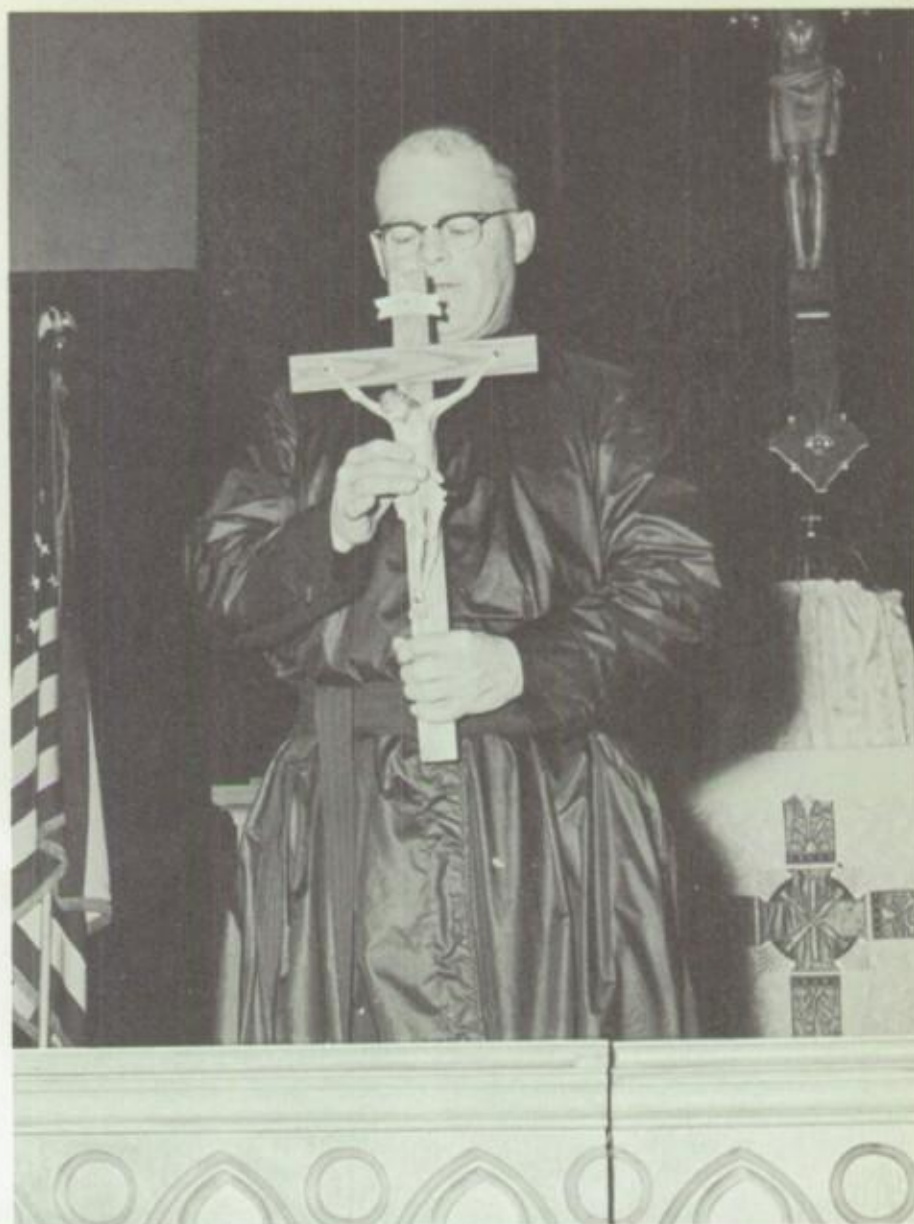

As she reflects upon a recent conference, Dianne Finley contemplates the panoramic view provided by the Broadmoor.

"Duke, if it weren't for my eye, I'd be where you are, Allegretto!", whines Mike Reed. Father Joe and the senior boys are shown dining on retreat.

One of the most memorable events of the senior year is the Broadmoor closed retreat. Preparation for the future of each senior is emphasized in the retreat's theme. The spiritual highlight of the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors is the annual retreat held for underclassmen. The aim of the retreat is to instill in the students the responsibilities of a good Catholic. Under the direction of the retreat master, the students gained spiritually by taking part in daily Mass, stations of the cross, the rosary, and beneficial conferences.

Ring Day

Symbols of loyalty, the senior class rings represent what each Fransalian feels toward his school and toward the Christian principles acquired during his four years in high school. The blessing of the rings given by Monsignor Gregory Smith, pastor, adds a spiritual significance to the visible replica of the students' loyalty to St. Francis.

Barbara Younkin appears pleased as she accepts her class ring from Monsignor Smith.

Activities

Sparked by the St. Francis de Sales High School band under the direction of Mr. Lloyd Bowen, the senior girls, with the help of four clowning juniors, entertain the crowd of spectators in tribute to name bands.

"He was tall, dark, and handsome and had shoulders THIS wide!" - - Theresa Maguire

"Swing your partner - Do-Si-Do." - - Barbara Romero

Glowing at the Color Day rally are the SF royalty and their escorts, from the left, Carol Carnes and Frank Fabrizio, Sherry Devlin and Steve Krizman, Shirley Van Woensel and Dennis Bryan; officers, Jonna Lou Blair, president; Roseanne Clark, secretary; Jane Smith, treasurer; and Kathy Reinmuth, vice president; and the Gremlin mascots, Andre Bouselaire and Tommy Wenzinger.

Homecoming, the highlight of the football season, is initiated by the Color Day activities. The Fransalians begin this day by attending Mass for a victorious Homecoming game. Blue and gold are predominate throughout the school. The skit, given by the Senior Drama Class, adds a note of humor for all and inspiration to the team. The pep rally, the culmination of the day's festivities, is marked by the appearance of the Homecoming royalty.

The SF girl is pretty neat . . .

Now a St. Francis boy is quite a treat . . .

And the SF alumni can't be beat!

With certain misgivings the regular residents of the rectory view their new guest as she explains what wonderful things she has brought along. From the left, are Mrs. Deazy (Vicki Eifert), Jenny (Barbara Romero), Father Moynihan (Jerry Droll), and Michael (David Lucas).

Although the girls giggle their approval of Owen's antics, Father seems to disapprove of lawn mowers in the house. Characters, from the left, are Larry Lehnerz, Jerry Droll, Cheryl Kitto, Mary Alice O'Connor, and Pat Petry.

Shirley (Patty Smith) cowers in the corner as Miss Stearns (Gwen Jorgenson) offers her "delicious" pineapple rice to Father Moynihan (Jerry Droll). Mr. Parkside (Neil Skau) and Sister Mary of the Angels (Anne Karr) apprehensively await Father's reply.

Jenny Kissed Me

Father and Michael compare their ideas of these "hep" girls. The girls, Pat Mergen, Betty Saya, and Kerry Boschult, have their own thoughts about Father and Michael.

"Now apply it to the bottom," instructs Owen Parkside (Larry Lehnerz). His orders are eagerly carried out by Jenny (Barbara Romero).

Father Moynihan peers around the corner at an inopportune moment, interrupting a tender scene between Jenny (Barbara Romero) and Michael (Dave Lucas).

Football

1961

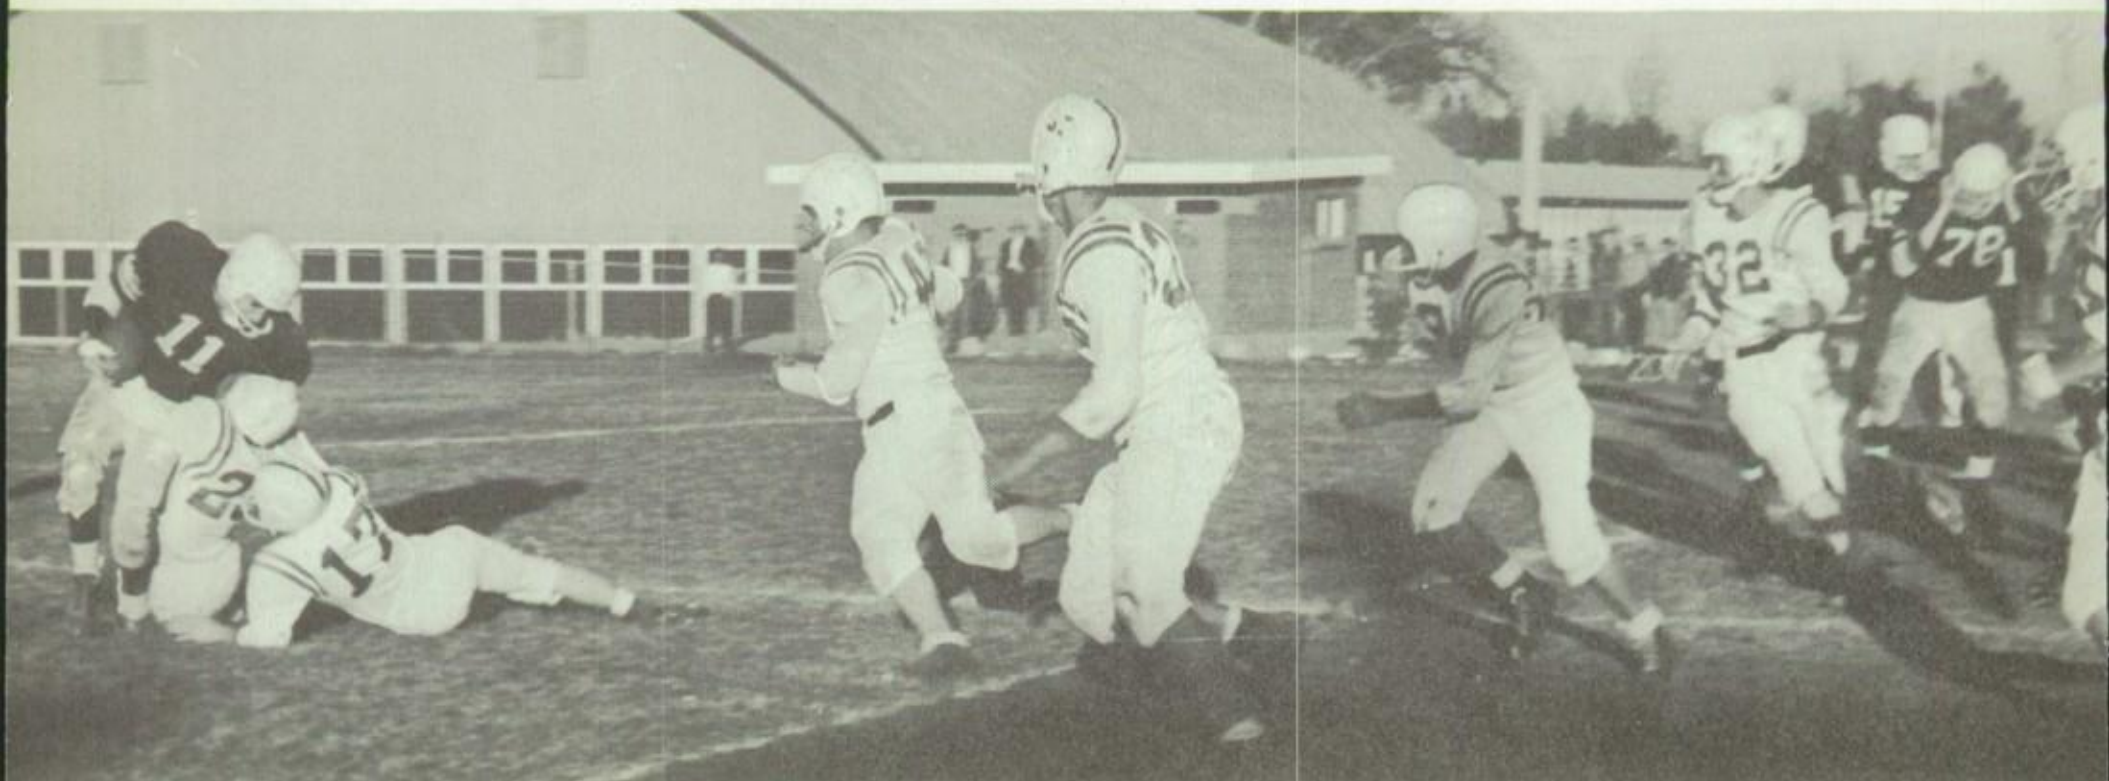

Season Summary

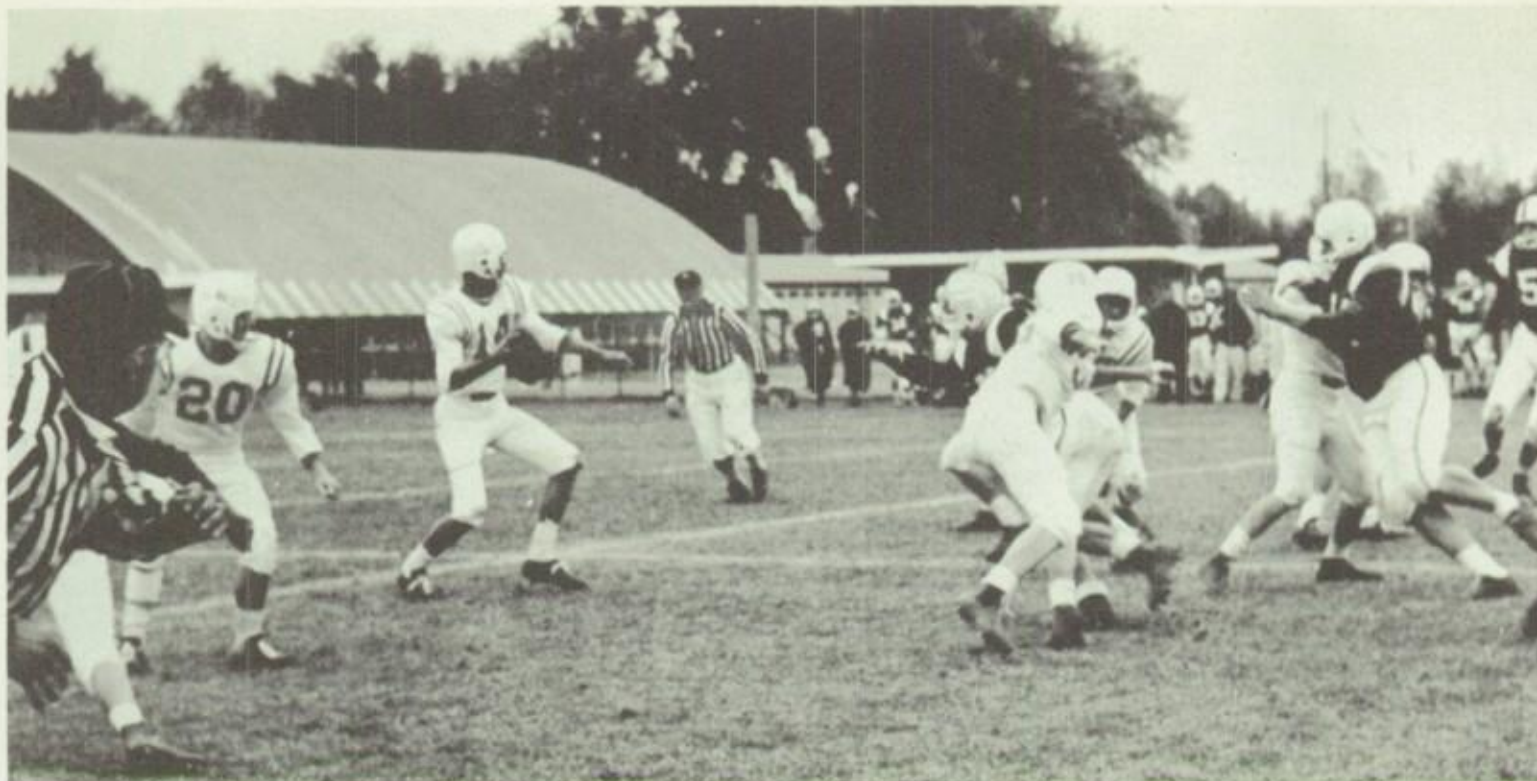

The 1961 Gremlin football squad surprised many critics in finishing the season with a 5-4 record. Much improved over previous SF teams, the Grems got off to a slow start and suffered defeat at the hands of Regis in the opening game of the season. Th Gremlins bounced back, however, to post three straight wins against Mt. Carmel, St. Joe's, and Machebeuf. In their fifth outing the Southsiders again fell short of victory in the contest with Mullen.

Frustration hits this Mullen back as Jerry Fitzgerald prepares to halt his progress.

Steve Krizman and Larry Barton pull down a Cathedral back as Frank Fabrizio, Connie Boeding, Bill Esquibel, Buck Kelly and Bob Burke prepare to finish the job.

Ron Artzer (14) prepares to throw under the strong protection of Steve Krizman (20).

Stunned Buck Kelly (32) is heartened as Bob Burke drives for yardage against Cathedral.

Season Summary

In providing the returning alumni with an exciting afternoon the Gremlins rolled over Cathedral on Homecoming Day. On a snowy field the Tigers of Holy Family surprised the SF team with their third defeat. In the hardest fought game of the year the Grems came up one point short of victory over Annunciation. The SF team finished the season with a final win over St. Mary's at snow-covered Colorado Springs.

New Coaching Staff

The SF Gremlins were led to a victorious season by a new coaching staff. Due to an extended stay in the army, Dick Brus was unable to return. Bob Stevens took over as head coach and did a commendable job. Assisted by John Braun and Jack Fulham, Mr. Stevens compiled a 5-4 winning record.

Steve Krizman, All-Paroke, All-State halfback who broke the all-time Paroke scoring record with 135 points, was captain of the Gremlin squad. He was ably assisted by co-captains All-Paroke guard, Frank Fabrizio, and tackle, Buck Kelly.

Basketball

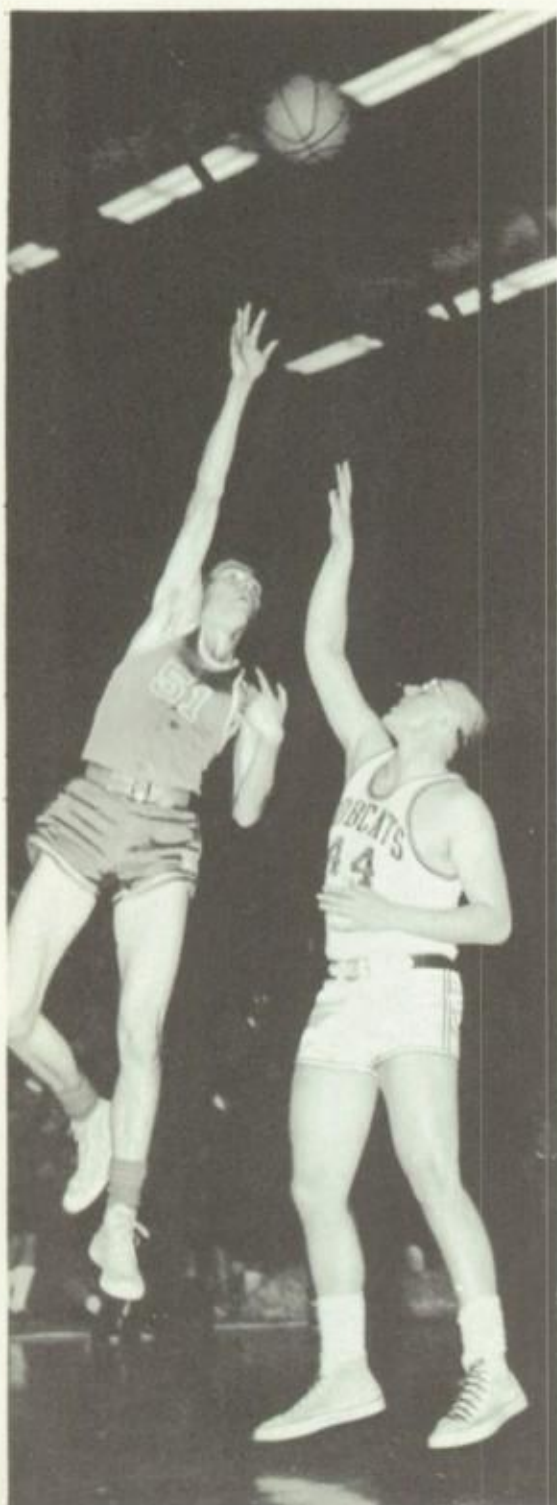

1961-'62

Hard-beset by attacking Machebeuf opponents, Ron Artzer sets a steady eye on the basket and calmly aims the ball.

Hypnotized by the frenzied action before them, Dick Quinlan, Don Pitchford, and Ron Artzer await a chance to assist their battling teammate Ed Reichert against the tough St. Anthony's Bobcats.

The St. Francis basketball team finished the Parochial League season with a 12-6 record and a 0-2 record in the State Tournament. The Grems, lacking the team height necessary to produce championship teams, made up for their shortcomings with a fighting spirit and a strong desire to win. Included in the 12-6 record are two victories each against Machebeuf, Cathedral, St. Joe's, and Mount Carmel. The Gremlins posted one victory each in contests with Mullen, St. Mary's, Annunciation, and Holy Family. Regis defeated the SF cagers twice in league play.

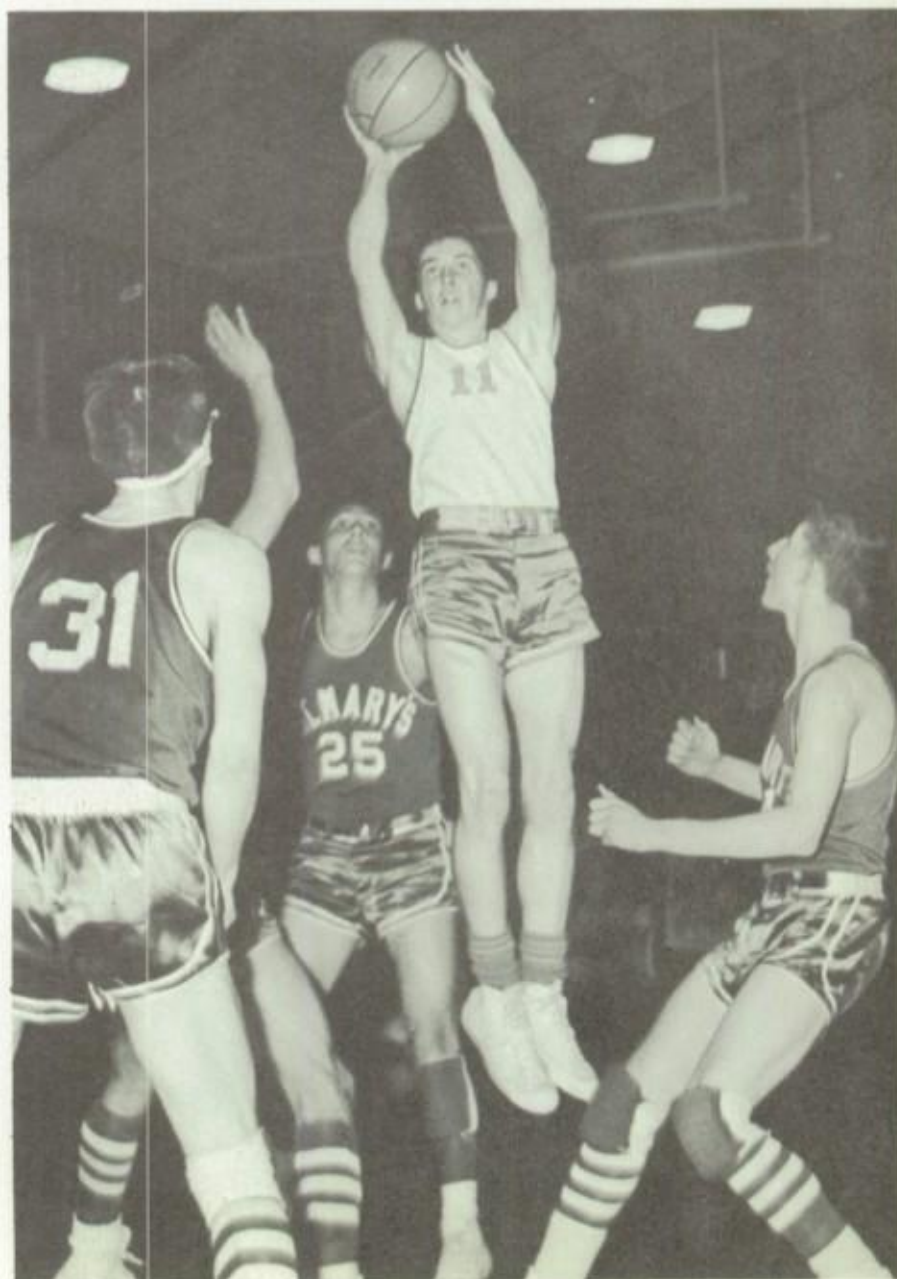

Sighting the basket, Don Pitchford, junior center, shoots a hook over the outstretched arm of a St. Anthony's defender.

"Now that I'm down here, someone help me up!" —
Kathy Lodge

"See my Keds? Aren't they pretty?" — Patsy Gisler

Jumping high amid the baffled St. Mary's Pirates, Don Batliner guides the ball towards the basket.

"Hello to you, too, fella." —
Mary Frances Moore

Unnerved by two converging St. Joe Bulldogs, soph Tom Abdo fires the ball toward the basket.

"I did it! I did it! I finally did it!" — Trish Claypool

"I always say there is nothing like a good stretch." — Sheila Nelan

"1-2, 1-2, 1-2" — Pat McCabe

Dick Quinlan eludes the Regis Raider's attempt to block his driving layup.

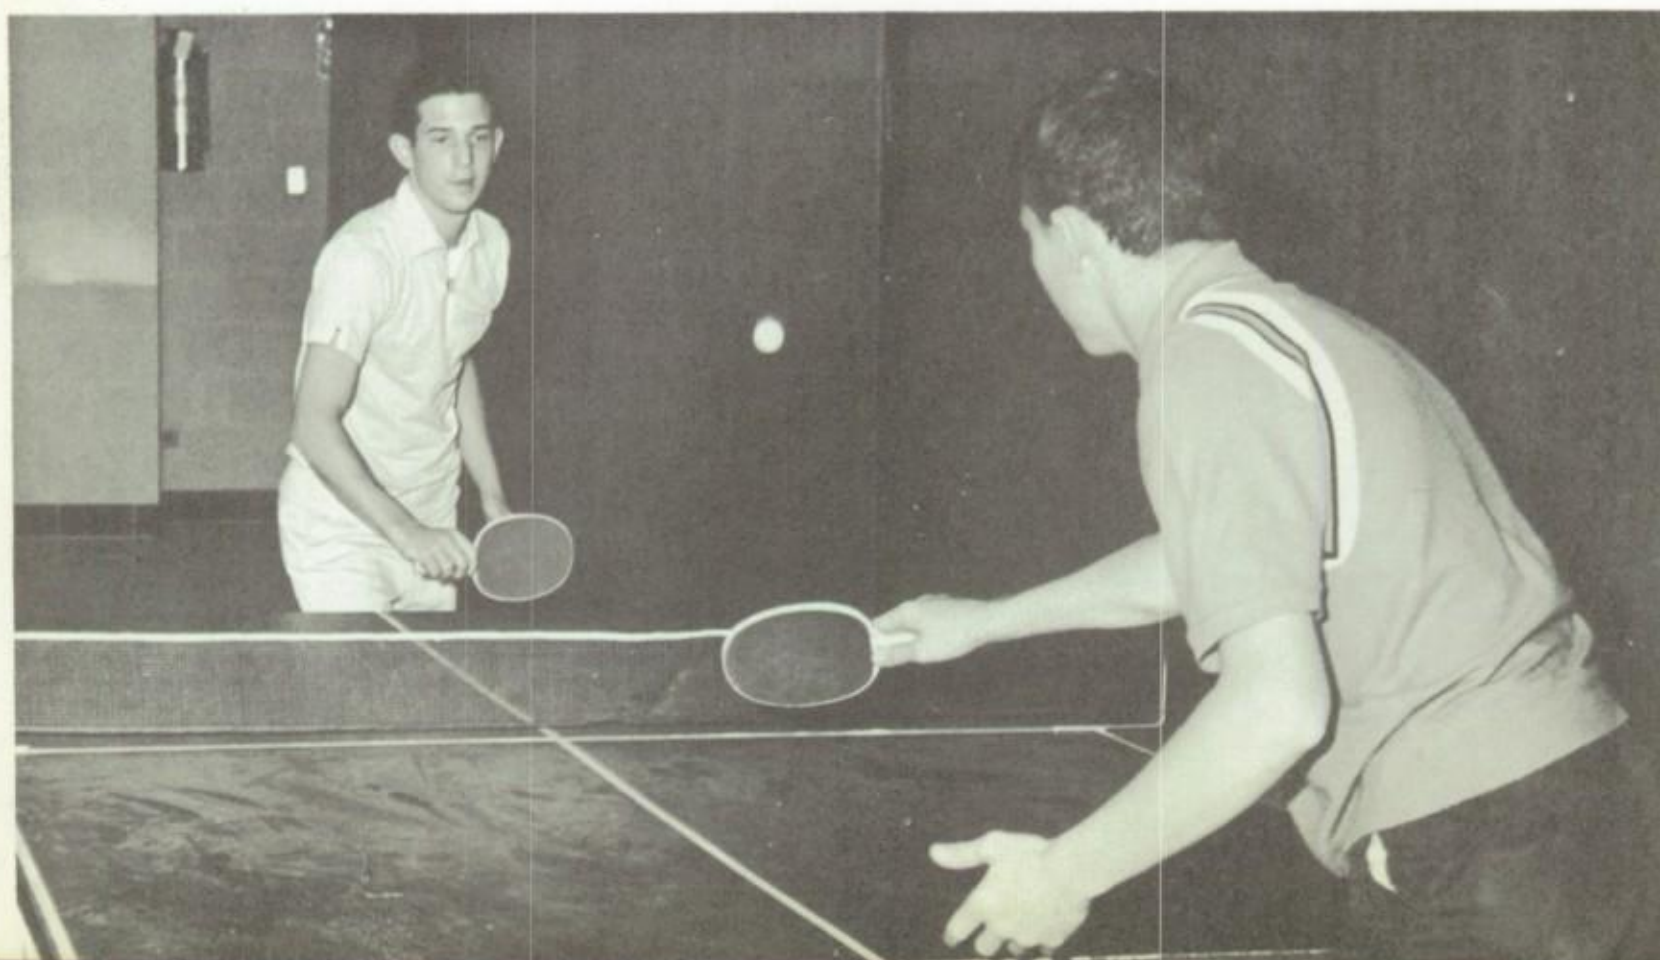

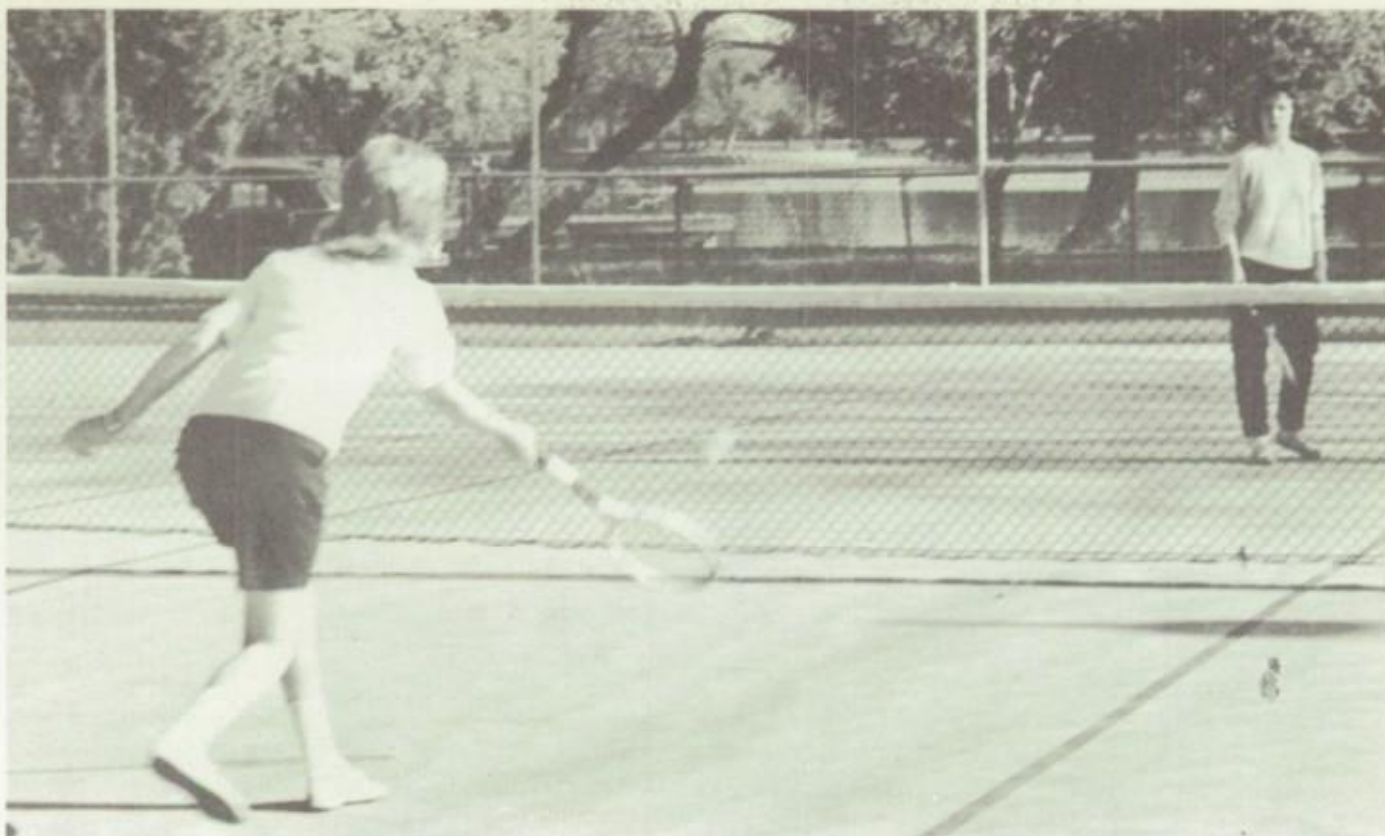

Boys' Intramurals

Mr. Joseph Bischoff, instructor, looks on as John Hayes executes a forward flip. Rich Holk, Jim Ponzi, and Steve Leatherman, eagerly await their turn.

"Come on, Frank. Don't hit it so hard. I might miss it." Mike Cassell and Frank Krizman enjoy an active game of ping-pong in the gym.

Weary and disappointed, Linda Carlin stands baffled as Maryan Koehler tries to hit the ball over the net.

Girls' Intramurals

Freshman girls express varying emotions as they watch the volleyball safely clear the net.

Junior girls reach for control of the ball in a noon-time game in the school gymnasium.

Baseball

As sure a sign of spring as any groundhog leaving his burrow is the sight of St. Francis baseball players unlimbering long-dormant muscles and preparing for the Parochial League baseball season. Coach Wendy Strohauer had his team working out at the "dust bowl" at Cedar and Navajo streets when the optimistic weatherman was correct and in the gym during inclement weather. Coach Strohauer, assisted by Jack Fulham and Tim Wieand, divided the boys into a varsity and a "B" team. The varsity was made up, for the most part, of underclassmen with only three seniors and two juniors on the team. The "B" team was comprised of sophomores and freshmen. Don Pitchford handled the pitching chores for the Gremlins and was backed up by soph Steve Lewis and freshman Mike McKenny. Bob Haberkorn and Jim Johnson filled the catcher's position behind the plate. The infield was ably manned by Dick Quinlan at third, Bill Esquibel at shortstop, Ed Von Feldt at second, Connie Boeding at first and utility man Jim Ramsey. John Ryan, Ed Reichert, Rich Pope, Bill Stolte, Ernie Ulibarri and Don Batliner were in charge of the Gremlin outfield.

"Mighty Casey at the Bat." Powerful SF slugger, Connie Boeding, takes a vigorous swing at the ball.

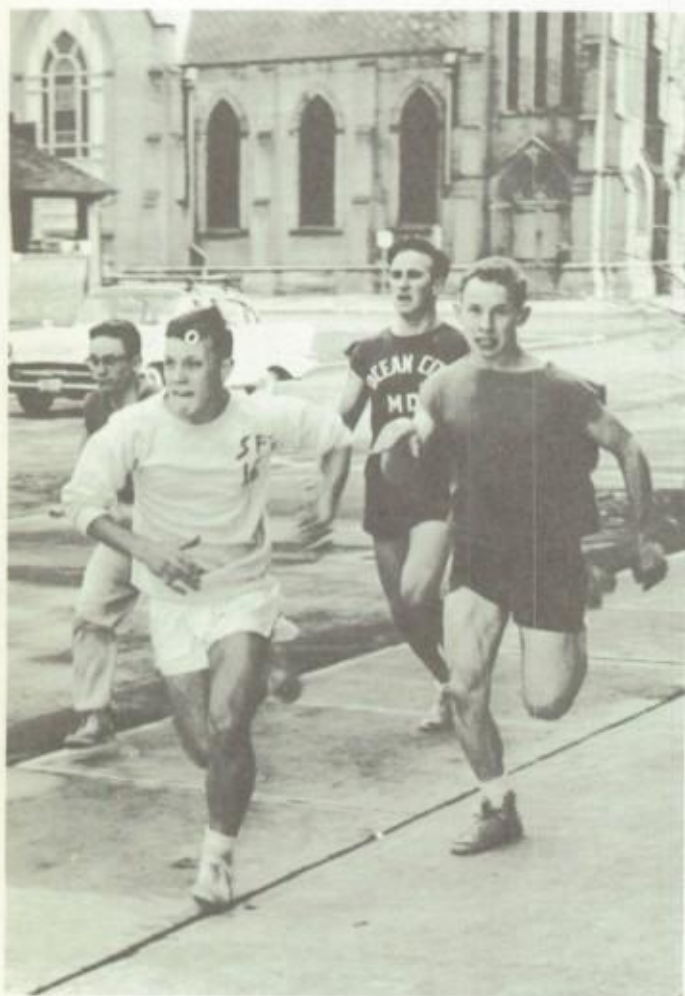

Did Bob Haberkorn get him or didn't he? That's the question. But freshman Jim Johnson reclining doesn't seem too worried about the decision.

Don Pitchford hurls the ball toward home as first baseman Connie Boeding keeps a watchful eye on a sneaky Regis player.

Hamming it up for the cameraman are track stars, Larry Barton, Rod Lyons, Bill Dowdle, and Gary Wenzinger.

If facial expressions give any boost to the shot put, John Stretz will do very well. Neal Malouf and Arnie Coufall observe his technique.

Track

For the first time at St. Francis, track was added to the school's rapidly expanding sports program. Headed by Coach Joseph Bischoff, the SF team developed into an impressive group. Since much of the team consisted of underclassmen, track showed promise of good things to come by way of building up an experienced group of athletes. Results of meets with Lutheran High, Mullen, and Country Day School seemed to be excellent omens of successes in future years.

Members of the newly-formed track team are, from the left, kneeling, Rod Lyons, Gary Wenzinger, Arnie Coufall, Neal Malouf, John Gassner; second row, Rick Karlin, Doug Sterner, Bill Dowdle, John Stretz, John Aitken, Duane Kenlon, Mr. Joseph Bischoff, coach; third row, Larry Barton, Frank Krizman, Mel Apodaca, Jim Cassell, Mike Turilli, Don Swanger, and Julius Pfannenstiel.

Tom,
You're a real cute guy with loads of personality & have fun this summer
Clara

Tom, you are a real nut! Have fun this summer
but be good (Ho Ho)
Remember me as you bake in the sun in Arizona.
Love,
Marge

Tom,
You're a great
kid. Start taking good if that's possible.
Joanell

Tom, I'll
miss you next year even if nobody else will be good & stay sober.
Love
Jila
